Pretty 19 year old Mrs. Christine Hunter is in jail at Richmond, charged with bigamy, her first husband being the complainant.

J. E. Nobles, a traveling salesman for a Columbus, O., house, was found dead with the gas turned on in a room in a hotel at Jacksonville, Fla.

Believing that he had killed his wife in shooting at a faceted burglar, Wm. Brockman committed suicide at his home in a Chicago suburb.

Aguinaldo has written to Gen. Chaffee asking that he be permitted to visit the United States and present to Congress the wishes of the Filipinos.

Abe Boling and William D. Auxier fought a pistol duel in Mason county, neither being wounded, but Mose Barnett, a bystander, was shot in the leg.

One person was killed and 12 injured in a rear-end collision between two Metropole elevated trains at Chicago. The collision was due to a dense fog.

Will Dorsey, a Negro, was sentenced at Birmingham to hang for highway robbery, the case being the first involving the death sentence for this offense.

The Negroes of Jacksonville, Fla., will organize a stage line on account of the ordinance prohibiting them from riding in the same street cars with white people.

Admiral Schley, replying to a newspaper which offered to raise public subscriptions to pay the cost of the court of inquiry, said that he could not accept the offer.

The Kentucky State Bar Association was organized in Louisville with Mr. W. H. Mackoy, of Covington, as president and a vice president from each appellate district.

Two limited trains on the Santa Fe railroad collided near Franconia, Ariz., a switch station, and seven trainmen were killed. Three passengers and 14 trainmen were hurt.

The heirs of Charles Bazile, a pioneer settler of St. Paul, Minn., are preparing to take possession of the old Minnesota capitol and grounds as soon as the State offices are removed.

Mrs. Charles Edwards, a widow, shot Andy Nearly, colored, and Herman James, white, who, she claims, were attempting to prevent her from occupying a leased farm, near Creston, Ia.

Four mysterious graves near Decatur, Ala., have been opened and found to contain much antique silverware, china and gold. The graves antedated the memory of the oldest man in the community.

The annual report of the Internal Revenue commissioner for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901, shows that the collections in Kentucky during that period amounted to $26,181,305.86. The internal revenue receipts for the entire country exceeded those of last year by about $11,555,561.

John Diston was given 20 years by a jury at Jackson for killing Clint Wadkins.

Two brothers, who were taken for chicken thieves, were riddled with shot at Chicago.

A movement is on foot for the organization of a new tobacco combination with a capital stock of $50,000,000.

Helet Keeney, daughter of a prominent coal operator of Middlesboro, was seriously injured in alighting from a train.

Thomas Wallace, a hunter, was killed in the mountains of Tennessee by a farmer, on whose land Wallace was trespassing.

While ministering to a convict in the death chair in Auburn, N. Y. prison, Father Kelley barely escaped receiving the full electric current.

W. D. Buchanan, a soldier who, while running amuck, killed two policemen, at Junction City, Kan., committed suicide in his cell by hanging with a towel.

The largest gas well in the world is spouting forth something like 26,000,000 cubic feet of gas every 24 hours near Weston, W. Va., and all efforts to control it have proved futile.

MIDDLEBURG.

Rev. Logan Godfrey preached at the M. E. church Sunday, followed by Archie May Sunday night.

The recent severe freezes and protracted drought have so diminished pasture as to necessitate the wholesale feeding of stock.

Theo. Wesley, late of Mt. Vernon, has located at Mt. Sterling, where he will go into the drug business. Mr. Wesley was formerly postmaster and druggist at this place.

James T. Short, Sr., will build a beautiful residence at Yosemite. Ebeneezer Jones has moved into one of the Coffey houses across the river. George Luster will move to Garrard county soon.

The bird hunting season is now on in earnest in Casey and if reports be true the partridge crop is the largest in years. Hundreds of sportsmen from all over Central and Northern Kentucky and other States as well seem to be making Casey their "mecca" this season.

We have been having some regular arctic weather down here in Casey the past week. There have been three small flurries of snow and the river frozen over. Very cold for the time of the year. The past week has been very propitious for hog killing and quite a number have been butchered in the community.

Rev. J. B. Ferrell and Judge J. M. Tifford returned from Somerset Monday, where they attended the meeting of the Baptist State board. Rev. Logan Godfrey is in Liberty working in the interest of the M. E. church at that place. Mr. Marion Garrard, of Joyce, lately returned from Illinois, visited Mr. Ab. Hall's Saturday and Sunday.

The Ladies' Prayer Meeting and Epworth League met at the Baptist and Methodist churches Sunday with small attendances, on account of the severe weather. The Epworth Leaguers are making great preparations for their entertainment which will take place at the M. E. church on Thanksgiving day. They will also give a supper that night at the college, for which a small sum will be charged.

"Uncle Clem" Cochran, an old widower of four-score years, and "Aunt Patsy" Marbles, a widow of 60-odd, were united in marriage at Liberty Sunday night, Rev. Logan Godfrey officiating. There were fully 150 people present to witness the union of the old couple. The bride before her first marriage was a Napier. The groom is the father of Mr. W. B. Cochran, a prominent attorney of Liberty and late republican candidate for State Senator.

Ans. T. Ware, of Danville, and Miss Theresa Vandiver, of Harrodsburg, were married in Lawrenceburg.

The engagement is announced of Mrs. Lane, daughter of Senator Blackburn, to Chevalier Trentanove, the well-known Italian sculptor.

Dr. Carlos F. Macdonald has been awarded $25,000 a year by the New York Supreme Court for the proper care and maintenance of Mrs. Ida M. Flagler, the divorced wife of Henry M. Flagler.

Emmett Traylor, oldest son of Alex. Traylor, and Miss Annie Hiatt, the handsome daughter of Mr. J. H. Hiatt, were married by Rev. W. E. Arnold Wednesday evening. The groom is a prosperous young farmer, industrious and clever, while the bride is an exceptionally fine young woman and one of the very handsomest ladies in Lincoln county. After the marriage a number of friends gathered at her home, where delightful refreshments were enjoyed and all had a pleasant evening. We congratulate Mr. Traylor on winning his fair bride and wish them both all the happiness possible.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I can recommend it with the utmost confidence. It has done good work for me and will do the same for others. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, Ralph S. Meyers, 64 Thirty-seventh St., Wheeling, Va. For sale by Craig & Hocker, druggists.

Operations have been suspended at Prospect Hill coal mine near Vincennes, Ind., and the union miners who attacked the nonunion men declare that they will make a more determined assault unless the miners are paid the union scale.

Cut this out and take it to Craig & Hocker's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Regular size, 25c. per box.

Many people are suffering fearfully from indigestion or dyspepsia, when one single bottle of HERBINE, would bring about a prompt and permanent cure. A few doses will do more for a weak stomach than a prolonged course of any other medicine. Price, 50 cents. Penny's Drug Store.

Mrs. Sallie Woods, wife of W. Woods, a farmer near Keene, and sister of Deputy Sheriff Logan Young, committed suicide by shooting herself with a pistol. She has been in ill-health for sometime.

Cut this out and take it to Craig & Hocker's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Regular size, 25c. per box.

LANCASTER.

Mr. Russell H. Botton, a bachelor, and Mrs. Kidwell, a young widow, both of Teetersville, were married at the clerk's office yesterday.

The Lady Macabees had a very interesting meeting Wednesday evening. Several new members have been added and the bazaar is growing quite rapidly at present.

Fourteen of the best old-time fiddlers in the State will be contestants at the "Old-Time Fiddler's Contest" Nov. 28. Don't miss the best entertainment ever given in Lancaster.

"The hemp crop in Garrard is the largest the county has ever seen," said one of our most prominent dealers. The weather, however, is not very good for the rotting of the hemp.

Several members of the A. O. U. W. went over to Stanford to a lodge meeting the first of the week. Mr. Durham, of Middleburg, is ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. Dr. I. S. Wesley.

Mr. Harvey Ball died at his home on Richmon street Tuesday afternoon of abscess of the brain and was interred in the Lancaster Cemetery next day, after appropriate services at the house by Rev. Mr. Wolford, of the Baptist church, of which Mr. Ball had long been a member. A wife and four children survive him.

The funeral of John Woodcock, the 12 year old son of Capt. T. A. Elkin, was largely attended on Wednesday afternoon. He was the pet and the pride of the whole family, as well as a great favorite at school. Although a cripple for some years, having suffered from white swelling all his life, his last illness was a very brief one and his death a great shock to his many friends. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. R. Moore. A quartette was very impressively rendered by Mrs. Belle Burnside, Miss Neile Johnston, and Messrs. R. H. Batson and J. C. Hemphill. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, showing to some extent how this dear child will be missed.

One of the most impressive features of the funeral was the great respect shown by the schoolmates who, as a mark of their affection for their departed playmate, gave several elegant floral tributes. The grade, of which he was a member, marched to the cemetery, led by their teacher, Miss Janey Shumate. We sympathize very much with the sorrowing relatives and would ask them to remember that John Woodcock is not dead, but lives now where all is brightness and joy and where suffering and death are over.

Verily another flower has been transplanted into the garden of the Master.

MATRIMONIAL.

Samuel T. Farris, of Silver Creek, and Miss Ida Roe Beazley, of Richmond, will marry Dec. 4.

We've got a mighty straight tip on the coming marriage of a prominent pair of West End young people.

Ans. T. Ware, of Danville, and Miss Theresa Vandiver, of Harrodsburg, were married in Lawrenceburg.

The engagement is announced of Mrs. Lane, daughter of Senator Blackburn, to Chevalier Trentanove, the well-known Italian sculptor.

Dr. Carlos F. Macdonald has been awarded $25,000 a year by the New York Supreme Court for the proper care and maintenance of Mrs. Ida M. Flagler, the divorced wife of Henry M. Flagler.

Emmett Traylor, oldest son of Alex. Traylor, and Miss Annie Hiatt, the handsome daughter of Mr. J. H. Hiatt, were married by Rev. W. E. Arnold Wednesday evening. The groom is a prosperous young farmer, industrious and clever, while the bride is an exceptionally fine young woman and one of the very handsomest ladies in Lincoln county. After the marriage a number of friends gathered at her home, where delightful refreshments were enjoyed and all had a pleasant evening. We congratulate Mr. Traylor on winning his fair bride and wish them both all the happiness possible.

Allen Burris, of Cripple Creek, Col., arrived Monday to visit Mrs. Jennie Carpenter and family. It is reported that upon his return he will be accompanied by one of the West End's most popular and accomplished young ladies.

"Oh, there are tones from broken hearts,

That note but broken hearts can feel;

When memory to the mind imparts,

What death alone can heal."

HUSTONVILLE.

Proantitranstansiantionist is the latest arrival here.

Miss Nellie Keenon Adams, of Danville, is the guest of her sisters and brothers.

Lutes & Co. bought of Jno. J. Allen a car-load of sheep and lambs at about 3c a pound.

Mr. Jesse P. Riffe, who has been confined to his room for some time, is able to eat again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bishop will arrive Saturday from Ponca City, to spend the winter with relatives.

Geo. D. Weatherford purchased from Miss Mellie Hopper, for Jas. Baker, of Hustonville, Tenn., her Shetland pony for $75.

T. Clarence Wilkerson, of Indianapolis, Ind., stepson of the popular drummer, C. L. Holmes, is here on a hunting trip, a guest of the Hotel Weatherford.

P. W. Green drove over from Lexington Sunday. He was met here by William Vandiver, of Harrodsburg, and they are now in Casey on a hunting expedition.

The matrimonial fever is permeating the air and before the New Year some several of our young people will have joined hands with Cupid on the "long journey through life."

Judge W. M. Myers, who has been on a hunting trip in Casey, reports plenty of game and fine success, notwithstanding the fact that this is his first hunt in fifteen years.

Anyone having a shepherd dog for sale may do well by placing same in the hands of A. B. C. Dillidie. He has the faculty of disposing of them and guaranteeing them to be extra good bird dogs.

The protracted meeting that began at the Presbyterian church Sunday night is being conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. W. Bruce, of Perryville, with the assistance of Rev. W. T. Overstreet, of the same place.

The house of J. G. Weatherford, of Latonia, was entered by robbers last week, the burglars securing about $200 in cash which was in a pocket of Mr. Weatherford's trousers. They overlooked his vest, which contained $30 in money and a gold watch valued at far more than his loss.

The following gentlemen are here, the guests of T. L. Carpenter and L. M. Reid, on hunting trip: Captains Ed. Sherman and Dineen, two of the most popular Q. & C. conductors running on the road; Jno. Fisher, Covington; Pat Dunn, Cincinnati; Auburn Eastman, London, Ohio; Charley Hayden, the popular flagman, and Joe Shepherd, of Somerset, and Sanford Lyne, of Lexington. They report very good sport.

The stockholders of the Beaver Creek Oil & Gas Co., of this place, are very highly elated over reports from their well in Wayne county. Saturday night a strong flow of gas was struck at 210 feet, necessitating the cessation of work and the extinguishing of lights from fear of fire. On Monday the McConney Oil Co., composed of Danville capitalists struck 60 feet of green oil at 530 feet near where the local people are boring.

W. S. Drye & Co. sold Monday to Moda Nichols, of Lexington, for $400 their fine three-year-old gelding by Gambrino and out of a Paladine mare. They now have at their stables above town what is considered the finest team that has ever been in this section of the country, and will have a gentleman here from Washington, D. C., next week to see the animals. They have refused some very handsome offers for them.

Allen Burris, of Cripple Creek, Col., arrived Monday to visit Mrs. Jennie Carpenter and family. It is reported that upon his return he will be accompanied by one of the West End's most popular and accomplished young ladies.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

W. P. WALTON.

Is a Candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the 2d District, subject to the will of the democracy.

EVERY democrat in Kentucky and elsewhere who knows the grand old Kentucky gentleman and true-blue democrat, Judge R. J. Breckinridge, will learn with deep regret that he is to be removed from office. The court of appeals has decided that Clifton J. Pratt, who contested his seat, is entitled to the office and on Jan. 1, next, Judge Breckinridge will step down and out. Judge Guffy delivered the opinion of the court, Judges DuRelle, Burnam and O'Rear concurring, and Chief Justice Paynter and Judges White and Hobson dissenting. The action was the last of the contest cases which grew out of the election of 1899. The appellant, Pratt, did not appeal his case from the judgment of the Frankfort circuit court seating the democratic contestants at the same time the other republican nominees appealed, but waited the outcome of the appellate election in the Eastern Kentucky district. Judge O'Rear, republican, was elected in his district, and then Pratt appealed to the higher court. It is said that Judge Breckinridge will return to his home at Danville and resume the practice of law and his friends say that his removal from office assures his entrance next year into the gubernatorial race to succeed Gov. Beckham.

THE fearful state of affairs existing in Hopkins county may be had from the following telegram sent from there: County Judge Hall has ordered the union miners to break up their camp at once, and set as a time limit Saturday at daylight. District President Wood, of the United Mine Workers, declares positively that the camp will not be broken up. Adj't Gen. Murray is in readiness with militia to enforce the order of Judge Hall. The judge says he will call upon Gen. Murray to disperse the miners in camp by force if any remain upon the expiration of the time set in his order. When Judge Hall's order was received at the camp a leader threw it into the fire.

THE editor of the Danville News pays his respects to the editor of the Somerset Republican as follows: "Let the editor of the republican sheet who says we will count noses with you, understand that he can get no cheap advertising from the News. We decline to mix up, preferring to pick our company. An editor who answers 'we' to a denunciation of assassination when no name is called, is unworthy of attention, much less a recognition in a newspaper controversy. It is getting so a man cannot say assassin these days that some republican yellow dog doesn't go yelping around the corner as though he were the one referred to."

WHILE sanctioning the decision of the court of appeals in the Pratt-Breckinridge case, the Louisville Post is kind enough to print the following about the gentleman who was kicked out of office: "Much has been said in recent months of the possibility of Col. Breckinridge entering the field as the democratic candidate for governor. His conduct in office and the dignity with which he surrenders the office, maintaining throughout the best traditions of his party and the best traditions of his family, will widen the circle of his friends and strengthen his hold upon the people."

MR. CARNEGIE made Mrs. Grover Cleveland a present of a picture he gave $1,000 for. The two were walking through the Carnegie Institute at Pittsburgh when Mrs. Cleveland expressed great admiration for pretty little rural scene, a bit of roadway, a farm house and a flock of sheep driven home followed by a farmer and shepherd dog. It was called "Twilight." "It is yours," said the philanthropist. The ex first lady in the land accepted it with thanks and it will hereafter adorn the Cleveland home in Princeton.

WE publish in another column an energetic communication on the subject of the ejection of Judge Breckinridge from the office of attorney general. There is much comment on the streets of Stanford of the same tenor. It undoubtedly makes of Judge Breckinridge a formidable candidate for gubernatorial honors.

THE Shelbyville Sentinel says all doubt is removed as to who will succeed Deboe. Nobody but Gov. McCreary. And when you think about it, nobody else should.

POLITICAL.

The official count shows a majority of 28,429 for the New Constitution in Alabama.

President Roosevelt, in his message, will strongly favor the re-enactment of the Chinese Exclusion act.

Senator McLaurin is defending the ship subsidy steal. He is now almost good enough a republican to take dinner with Booker Washington.—Paducah News-Democrat.

President Roosevelt's message is said to be the longest presidential message ever written.

The Adair News thinks that there is no doubt about Gov. McCreary's election to the U. S. Senate. Nor do we.

Soon after Congress assembles a McKinley memorial session will be held, at which tributes will be paid to the memory of the late president.

Congressman G. G. Gilbert is in Louisville to make inquiries about rural free delivery. He wants to secure the service for counties in his district.

Friends at Huntsville, Ala., have started a senatorial boom for Gen. Joe Wheeler and will urge his election as the successor of Senator Pettus next year.

The principal speakers at the Chamber of Commerce banquet in New York were Secretary of State Hay, Senator McLaurin and Gov.-elect Cummins, of Iowa.

B. F. Loy, elected sheriff of Green county, refused to serve, as he was not a candidate. George A. Edwards, who was defeated, has filed a contest for the office.

V. L. Surber, of Junction City, favorably known as "Punch," will be a candidate for door-keeper in the lower house of the next General Assembly of Kentucky.

President Roosevelt revoked an order of President McKinley by which about 1,800 civilians in the quartermaster's, medical and engineer service of the war department are again brought under the civil service rules.

Senator G. T. Farris, of the Danville district, announces his candidacy for president of the Senate, which carries with it the lieutenant governorship. He is a good man, conducted himself admirably during the last extra session and deserves recognition for the remarkable race he made.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

In a scorching separate dissenting opinion filed yesterday in the court of appeals, Chief Justice Paynter characterizes the opinion of the majority of the court in the Pratt-Breckinridge case as unfortunate, far-reaching and revolutionary. Sixteen cases heretofore decided by the court are cited to sustain the dissenting view. He shows that Judges Burnam and Guffy have written opinions directly the reverse of the one handed down Wednesday.

THIS AND THAT.

John Sizemore, aged 14, was thrown from a horse and fatally injured at Pineville.

Rev. R. B. Bailey closed a series of meetings at the Paris Baptist church, with 15 additions.

Ed Baxter has sold 18 cattle at 5c, and James Noland 33 at 4c to Weil, the Chicago buyer.—Register.

Mrs. Tennie Blythe got a verdict for $3,000 against the Illinois Central at Paducah. Her husband was killed by a train.

The appellate court of Illinois has decided that bucket shops have no right to secure quotations of the Chicago Board of Trade.

More than thirty thousand tickets have already been sold for the Harvard-Yale football game next Saturday at Soldiers' Field, Cambridge.

J. G. Cecil has sold to Mr. A. B. Stell, of Atlanta, Ga., the show horse Paul H., by Gambetta Wilkes, dam Nutmuntie, by Nutwood, 2:18, for $1,000.

Three trainmen were killed and several others injured in a head-on collision between two L. & N. freight trains at Hughes' Siding, Ala., seven miles from Birmingham.

A Washington dispatch says that the text and signatures of the Declaration of Independence have so faded that the famous document is now little more than a sheet of white parchment.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

WALTER W. WARREN'S farm is intact.

Frank Kennedy's home near Bronson burned. Loss $1,800.

The public school at Danville has closed on account of scarlet fever.

Reuben Quinn, the condemned Negro murderer of Danville, refuses to have his photograph taken, and says he will not do so for less than $100.

Strubbe oil well, No. 3, in the Sunbury district of Wayne county, has come in, and gives promise of yielding 300 barrels a day after a flush.

The general merchandise store of W. D. Tarter, at Gentry's Mill, Adair county, was robbed and burned to the ground. Loss, $4,000, with $2,000 insurance.

The jury hung in the case of Harry B. shop for killing James Davis at Somerset. Eight were for acquittal and four for conviction. The defendant was released on $1,000 bond.

It is said T. Roosevelt is thinking of having another cook dinner. This may be right or it may be wrong, but at any rate T. shows his good judgment by inviting Rastus in cold weather; it would be bad policy to get Mr. Nigger warmed up while in the best room of the place. But probably if T. would invite this American citizen of African descent in summer time he would then agree with the Southern people that it is bad policy.—Central Record.

Disgusted at the Court of Appeals' Decision, Lincoln County Democrats Declare for Judge Breckinridge for Governor.

On Wednesday of this week a majority of the court of appeals of Kentucky, speaking through that prodigy of learning and genius, Judge Guffy, rendered a decision in the case of Pratt vs. Breckinridge, which may prove as disastrous to our people in its consequences as it is extraordinary in its character.

The opinion reverses the action of the same court in the contest over the State officers two years ago, it reverses the action of the same court in the case of Poyntz vs. Shuckford, in which it was held that the election commissioners constituted a valid and constitutional board, it overrules and nullifies all the settled canons of our highest court on this subject, it declares in its necessary effect that every municipal officer in the State and every school officer in the State hold their places by invalid certificates, it nullifies Sec 38 of the constitution, which provides that contested elections shall be determined by the methods provided by legislative action. In short it is a decision which shakes to its base the fabric of our State government. Its immediate effect, as was its immediate purpose, is to eject from the office of attorney general the present lawfully elected and inducted incumbent, Judge R. J. Breckinridge, and place in it one C. J. Pratt. Judge Breckinridge has for two years filled the position with admirable ability and fidelity. In him Kentucky has really had, and for the first time in a generation, an attorney general. This action of the republican wing of our highest court makes of him the second great martyr in the cause of clean and respectable State government, and the second great victim to partisan malice. The incident so far as the judiciary of courts is concerned is closed.

But an appeal lies from Guffy to the people of Kentucky. We take the liberty of announcing Judge Breckinridge a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor in 1903. The nomination should be made without division. To emphasize and accentuate the issue we hope the republicans will put up Mr. Pratt. We will agree to go out of the business of prophesying if the people do not administer to the court and its creature a rebuke which will be memorable in the history of Kentucky. Fellow democrats of the Mountains, of the Bluegrass and of the Peninsular what say all of you?

LINCOLN COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

MR. M. D. ELMORE is improving the interior of the store room recently vacated by Mr. J. W. Perrin. He will make many improvements on the one he is in later.

PRITCHETT.—Horace Pritchett, aged 26, died near Shawnee Point of typhoid fever and was buried in the Danville Cemetery yesterday. He was a brother of Mrs. John W. Wallace, of this place.

I AM now in full charge of the meat business I bought of O. P. Huffman and I solicit a share of your patronage, promising the best, tenderest and freshest meats the market affords. Booker Wilkinson.

MURRAY & MCADAMS, Danville's leading jewelers, begin a standing advertisement this issue, which our patrons will do well to read from time to time. They can please you in almost any kind of a present.

REMOVALS.—John Bright, Jr., and wife have moved to the residence next to his brother, W. M. Bright; J. H. Boone to the McRoberts property on Somerset Avenue and Charles L. Dawes to the Mrs. Lottie Holmes property.

SAFETY IN MIND.—John Bright, Jr., and wife have moved to the residence next to his brother, W. M. Bright; J. H. Boone to the McRoberts property on Somerset Avenue and Charles L. Dawes to the Mrs. Lottie Holmes property.

AMONG THE BREAKERS.—At Walton's Opera House Thanksgiving evening promises to be one of the best entertainments given here for a long time. Secure your seats now or you may have to stand up, for people are coming from North, South, East and West.

QUINN MUST HANG.—The court of appeals over-ruled the motion in the Reuben Quinn case for a new trial and he will have to pay the penalty of his dastardly deed with his life. It will be remembered that he killed Poileman Crum, of Danville. The date of his execution has not been fixed yet.

THOMAS CLARK, the 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ferrill, of the Wayneburg section, died Wednesday morning of scarlet fever and was buried yesterday afternoon after services by Rev. Nathan Singleton. He was an unusually bright little fellow and his parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Reynolds, almost worshipped him.

ALREADY hunters and hounds have commenced to arrive at Crab Orchard Springs for the great fox hunt, which begins Monday next, 25th, and for which vast preparations have been made. Good saddle horses promise to be in demand for the occasion, so hunters had better take their steeds with them. Manager Willis is putting the big pot in the little, so to speak, for the occasion, which promises to be a most notable one.

THE following dispatch sent from Danville to the Louisville Times explains why "My Uncle from New York" will not be presented at Walton's Opera House tonight: "A company, headed by Edwin C. Sexton and Lawrence Maynard, attempted to present 'My Uncle from New York' at the Danville Opera House Wednesday night, but gave a somewhat unsatisfactory performance, which resulted in the audience taking charge of the play and putting an end to it in the second act. In one scene a rag doll was presented, which the audience claimed was a poor substitute for an actor. The crowd demanded its money back and the manager told them to go to the box-office and get it, after which the play broke up. One of the actresses became hysterical and a physician had to be summoned."

THE ladies of the Baptist church are raising quite a nice donation for their orphans' home in Louisville. It will be forwarded in time for Thanksgiving. It is certainly a praiseworthy undertaking and everyone should be glad to contribute to such a noble cause.

Crab Orchard is full of bird hunters the past few days, quite a large representation from Jessamine and Fayette counties being here. Several have come in advance of the great fox chase to take place next week. The Springs Hotel is being made ready for a large gathering, and the long looked for occasion will soon be a thing of the past.

LOOK out for a big business sensation next week.

A LOT of new carpets and rugs at Beasley & Hays.

HENS WANTED.—I want to buy 500 hens at once. Mark Hardin.

ATTRACTIVE patterns in waist flannels just in. Severance & Sons.

SEE our cook stove with five-year guarantee back before buying. John Bright, Jr., & Co.

FARMERS.—Please return our wheat sacks or call and pay for them. J. H. Baughman & Co., millers.

THIS week only, for cash only, we offer a fine picture at cut price as a holiday boomer. Miss Sacray. 2t.

WE have plenty of all kinds of feed such as hay, corn, oats and shipstuff. Cheap for cash. J. H. Baughman & Co.

THE nearest thing to your heart is your undershirt. The best place to buy it is at Cummins & McClary's. That is no dream either.

THE person or persons who borrowed my horn-handled umbrella and a pair of crutches will greatly oblige me by returning them. My name is on umbrella handle. Dr. J. F. Peyton.

BLACK CAKE.—I can save you both trouble and money by making your Thanksgiving or Christmas black cake. Come in and let me talk to you about it. Leave orders now. John H. Meier.

JOEL REYNOLDS, brother of Assessor elect M. G. Reynolds, was taken to Lakeland Asylum yesterday. He has been mentally unbalanced for a number of years. His brother and Bud Gooch took him to Lakeland.

CHANCES AGAINST HIM.—Samuel Solomon, who fell down the Gooch Hotel steps at McKinney Saturday night, is doing no good and the chances are against his recovery. He was driller for the Green River Developing Co.

TAXES—Your taxes are past due and if they are not paid by Dec. 1, I will be compelled to advertise your property for sale. Save yourself the humiliation and me the unpleasant duty of taking this step by getting your tax receipt at once. S. M. Owens, Sheriff.

WE don't know that he wants the postoffice again but if he does we hope Postmaster J. C. Florence will be retained for another term. There isn't a better official in the State and as long as the republicans are in power we will be glad to see him hold the job he fills so admirably.

SAFE ROBBED.—The safe in Jesse C. Lynn's butcher shop at Danville was robbed Wednesday night, the thieves securing between $150 and $200. An entrance was effected through a window at the rear of the building, a large pane being broken out, leaving an aperture large enough to admit a man's body. The burglar worked the safe.

REMOVALS.—John Bright, Jr., and wife have moved to the residence next to his brother, W. M. Bright; J. H. Boone to the McRoberts property on Somerset Avenue and Charles L. Dawes to the Mrs. Lottie Holmes property.

THE case of Alfred Bright, for killing Sam Biakemore, also colored, has occupied the entire time of circuit court since our last issue. It was given to the jury at 11:30 this morning, but up to the present no verdict has been declared. Two speeches were made on each side and all of the efforts are highly spoken of. Hon. F. F. Bobbitt and Col. W. G. Welch represented Bright, while Hon. J. Mort Rothwell assisted Commonwealth's Attorney Owsley.

LATER.—Bright got a life sentence

Crab Orchard.

Mr. Arch McKinney, of Stanford, spent a few days with Andrew Buchanan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Riddell, of Nicholasville, are pleasant guests of Miss Fanie Langford.

Maurice Perkins and Miss Bert James went to Somerset to attend the burial of Harvey Sallee.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Riggs, who has been quite ill with malaria for some time, is slowly improving.

The weather continues fine and favorable for corn gathering and hog killing, both of which are engrossing the time and attention of our citizens.

Mr. Will James is constructing a windmill at his new home which, with many other contemplated improvements, will make his abode "a thing of beauty and a joy forever."

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Peters will be rejoiced to know that their little son, Jim Henry, is convalescent from a severe attack of scarletina. Miss Katerine Brougham has been on the sick list, but is reported better.

The young man who was accidentally shot by Jeff Holman while hunting, is reported as doing well. Jeff deeply regrets the unfortunate affair. So many are the victims of such accidents recently, it behoves all hunters to be more on the alert.

The ladies of the Baptist church are raising quite a nice donation for their orphans' home in Louisville. It will be forwarded in time for Thanksgiving.

It is certainly a praiseworthy undertaking and everyone should be glad to contribute to such a noble cause.

A TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF MRS. T. P. HILL.

It was not my privilege to know the deceased in her earlier womanhood, but her portrait which hangs upon the wall in her beautiful home shows how, like a queen, she must have moved in the cultured circle of which she formed a part, winning the admiration and commanding the respect of all with whom she came in contact. It was in later life while I was pastor of the church, of which she was a member, that I met her and when shut out from society by her delicate health she manifested those qualities of heart and mind that endeared her to so large a circle of friends.

Gifted by nature with rare qualities of mind and heart which had been strengthened by culture and broadened by experience, accumulating years seemed only to add to her life the flavor of the ripened fruit.

The chastening rod of sorrow and suffering became as the polish of the gem that revealed its latent lustre and beauty. Her burdens became wings and her sufferings pinions, upon which she mounted to greater heights.

Although shut in from the work of the world, her home became a center for the diffusion of light and happiness to all around her. Her creed was: "God is love." Her confession of faith: "I am debtor to the wise and unwise; to all who, suffering, seek my help." And how well she tried to pay the debt many around her can testify.

Her faith was not credulity, but based on earnest study and intelligent comprehension of the teachings of the "Books of Books." Believing in "God as love," the love of God was shed abroad in her heart and shone in her words and deeds, making one feel better and stronger by being in her company.

As the declining sun fades from our eyes only to brighten the lives of others in more distant lands, so the evening splendor of her life has become the morning dawn in the land celestial, but the glory of the departing sun will ever linger in the memory of those who were honored by her friendship and blessed by her ministrations. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; they have ceased from their labors and their works do follow them."
